

6516209847.txt

I love the traffic and weather provided by XM, government regulations into this area exceeds my preference for involvement in the free market. The conflict seen here between the NAB and XM involved paid for subscribe radio, this is a paid service, not free radio, there is no onfusion here, this is not a government matter, Thomas Jefferson would flip in his grave if you intefered in a free market business selling a lawful service. Thank you.